Throw onions and peppers with 3 teaspoons oil, chili powder, black pepper and chipotle powder into a bowl and toss until well coated. Lay in single layer on parchment-lined baking sheet. Roast until onions are charred in spots and peppers are tender and beginning to brown (about 25 minutes). In a large skillet on medium heat put 1 teaspoon oil then add the rice and tomato juice. Add mushrooms. Sprinkle with 1/4 teaspoon black pepper (salt too if desired). Cook without moving until well-browned, about 2 minutes. Turn heat down slightly again and cook, stirring occasionally, until thoroughly browned and lightly crisped (about 5 minutes longer). Let vegetables and rice cool, then toss together in a large bowl. Warm the tortillas in a skillet or microwave. Divide the mixture equally into each tortilla then fold like a burrito. MAKE IT BETTER: Feel free to add avocados, salsa, fake cheese or fake sour-cream (you can use the real (not fake) versions if a vegetarian) on top. GOES WELL WITH: Lunch A fresh salad with black olives and avocados.
