

10 Mouthwatering DIY Pizza Recipes (Food Recipe Series Book 2)

You dont need to be an experienced chef to make an incredible pizza in the comfort of your own home. You may not believe it now, but please keep reading and soon youll become a convert. Reading through this guide, youll find all the elements that when combined together make the ultimate pizza, and all thats left for you is to grab that apron and start cooking. Wheres the catch? There is no catch. Yes, you can have your cake and eat it too. The first part will focus on the basics in pizza making. It will convince you that making your own pizza from scratch is easy, simple, and cheap. The good part: It will taste 10 times better than that take-out pizza you keep ordering. The best part: You know how those guys from the pizza delivery need 30 minutes or more to actually deliver the pizza? Well, you can make your own in less time. Yes, you read it right, no need to go back and check again. What follows is the most scrumptious dough of all times. This dough is definitely the winner because it just works every single time. Along with that, youll find all the tips and tricks for mastering the dough making process. There is also a solution for the times when you just dont feel like spending time in the kitchen: make a big batch of dough and keep it in the freezer, or buy some premade dough from the local pizzeria. Finally, youll get to the 10 mouthwatering pizza recipes that will satisfy even the pickiest eaters out there.
