

John C. Fremont: Courageous Pathfinder of the Wild West (Courageous Heroes of the American West)

Appropriately nicknamed the Pathfinder, John C. Fremont blazed many trails across the Wild West. Fremont carved paths over the Rocky and Sierra Nevada mountains. He led expeditions through uncharted wilderness and provided the first useful maps of California and Oregon. However, Fremont did more than explore. As a soldier, he helped California fight for its independence and served as one of the states first senators. Authors William R. Sanford and Carl R. Green reveal the remarkable life of the Pathfinder.
