

The Hijab Boutique

The Hijab Boutique is a wonderful book that will appeal to young readers age 10 and up. Black and white illustrations add to the messages impact. One of the striking attributes of The Hijab Boutique is its sensitive treatment of the topic of respecting cultural differences, and rethinking automatic responses. The Midwest Book Review Michelle Khans first childrens book, The Hijab Boutique, is a quick read with a deep and resounding message... Im excited to have such a simple yet profound story to share with my nieces, and any other girl who cares to read and learn a meaningful lesson about inner strength, faith, and womanhood through anothers eyes. Luxury Reading Farah enjoyed her private girls school and fun with her friends. Then an assignment meant she had to talk about her mother for International Womans Day in front of the whole class. Compared to her friends glamorous actress, make-up artist, and tap-dancing mothers, what can her modest mother possibly have that is worth sharing with her classmates? To Farahs surprise, her mother was quite the business woman before putting her career on hold to care for her daughter. Michelle Khan is an award-winning Indian Canadian writer. She started her career at a University of Toronto student paper, and eventually her words hit daily newspaper pages. For six years, Michelle wrote an internationally syndicated youth advice column. Her work led her to win a $5,000 scholarship from book publisher Harlequin Enterprises Ltd. She went onto earn a $15,000 award from Global Television Network. Michelle lives in Toronto, Canada, with her parents and younger sister. This is her first chapter book for kids.
