

The Fearless Coward (The Warriors of Camelot Odyssey Book 4)

Whilst convalescing at a remote hermitage from the loss of his hand in battle, Sir Bedivere of The Round Table bears witness to the bloody murder of his monastic hosts by deserters from Sir Mordreds army. With revenge firing his blood, he chases down the perpetrators of the crime, only to be mortally wounded and condemned against his will to an eternity in the hellish Welsh Otherworld of Annwn by the mysterious witch, Mallt-y-Nos. King Arawn of Annwn, still wounded by a long-nursed grievance against the Round Table Knights, takes great pleasure in watching Sir Bedivere descend into Caghiaidd, one of the eight massive chambers of punishment used to house all the unwilling subjects who languish under his tyrannical rule. With his unwanted companion, Justin Bradbury, former bard of King Cynlas Goch of Rhos, accompanying him on his journey through the Eight Perditions of Annwn, Sir Bedivere faces the near impossible task of overthrowing King Arawn in order to thwart the implacable tide of destiny into which he has been plunged and achieve the heavenly salvation of which he has been so cruelly robbed. The Fearless Coward is the fourth book in The Warriors of Camelot Odyssey.
