

Real Fast Desserts

The indispensable companion to Real Fast Food, focusing on the sweeter things in life, by pure, honest, and delicious Nigel Slater. This book is a mouth-watering collection of easily executed desserts suitable both for entertaining and for everyday eating. Consider blackberries steeped in a glass of deep red barolo or a dish of steamy rice scented with rosewater, cardamom, and pistachios. Or think of a thin apple crisp straight from the oven, or warm chocolate mousse cake with homemade espresso ice cream. All these are Real Fast Desserts that can be prepared in less time than it takes a frozen cheesecake to thaw. Slater's signature style and wit shines through in his adaptations of traditional favorites: bread and butter pudding that uses fruity, buttery panettone and creme brulee with nectarines are just a couple. Standing alongside these classics are dozens of brilliantly creative (and easy) desserts.
