

The Sisters Kennington

Alone on the edge of the Badlands of Utah, fourteen-year-old Emmeline and her sisters must survive on their own after their parents are killed. Can they overcome the Evil shadowing the valley where the Mormons have settled? The girls special talents, Emmelines magically beautiful bead work, Elizas ability to talk to animals, and Sarah Graces bewitching beauty and the help of a supernatural Paiute Indian woman just might do it. In a skillful blend of folklore and history, author Paris Anderson weaves an enchanting tale, sure to please both children and adults.
