

Complete Tales Of Blackberry Farm

Reading bedtime stories to her young children inspired Jane Pilgrim to begin to creating her own stories inspired by the farm animals that she had known and loved as a child on Exmoor and in the Lake District. She purposely set out to tell stories which were appealing and friendly and not at all frightening. Her children loved these tales and begged her for more. Jane began writing them down and soon had a collection of warm and enchanting tales from Blackberry Farm. Jane Pilgrim's delightful farm characters and their many adventures are vividly brought to life by the gloriously colorful illustrations of F Stocks May. The result is a volume of timeless stories which have enthralled generations of children and will continue to weave their magic for generations to come. Stories include: Postman Joe Mrs. Nibble Emily the Goat Little Martha Naughty George Henry Goes Visiting Mother Hen and Mary Ernest Owl Starts a School A Bunny in Trouble Mrs. Nibble Moves House The Adventures of Walter Walter Duck and Winifred Sports Day at Blackberry Farm Poor Mr. Nibble Lucy Mouse Keeps a Secret Sam Sparrow Saturday at Blackberry Farm Mr. Mole Takes Charge Mrs. Squirrel and Hazel Mr. Nibble Calls a Doctor Rusty the Sheepdog The Birthday Picnic Hide and Seek at Blackberry Farm Snow at Blackberry Farm Christmas at Blackberry Farm
